❖ God's Doorkeeper: St. André of Montreal. On January 6, 1937, the death of a humble doorkeeper for a boys' college drew over a million people to Montreal. For 40 years, Brother André Bessette of the Congregation of Holy Cross welcomed people at the door and became known as a miraculous healer. God's Doorkeeper looks at the heart and legacy of Brother André — as a man of prayer, of hospitality, and of compassion; a man who draws people in to experience a God who is love. On October 17, 2010, Br. André became the first male Canadian-born saint and the first saint for the Congregation of Holy Cross. He is living proof that “it is with the smallest brushes that the artist paints the most beautiful pictures.” Sunday, July 17, 8:30pm & 12:30 am.

❖ Interview with Cardinal Joseph Zen, SDB As the former Archbishop of Hong Kong, he continues to be one of the most outspoken defenders of religious freedom in China. Fr. Thomas Rosica spoke with Cardinal Zen prior to his retirement in 2009. Sunday, July 17, 8pm & 12am, repeat July 21, 8pm & 12am.

❖ Untold Blessing: Three Paths to Holiness

Fr. Robert Barron Part 3 of 6. Our ultimate goal is to be a saint. It is our greatest calling and what is desired for us by our Creator. Father Robert Barron presents a beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of Jesus Christ. He lays out three intriguing paths to holiness: Finding the Center; Knowing You're A Sinner; and Realizing Your Life is Not About You. Thursday, July 21, 9:30pm & 1:30am.

Holy Orders: In the Apostolic Tradition

Holy Orders is a sacrament conferred on men and by which they carry on the apostolic tradition as ministers of the Gospel and the sacraments.

The term order comes from the Latin ordinatio, which means incorporation into an ordo, an established civil or governing body. The Church is made up of three orders: episcopate (bishops), presbyterate (priests), and diaconate (deacons). To join one of these orders, the initiates participate in a sacramental liturgy of induction, which varies depending upon the order.

The Church teaches that two kinds of priesthood share in the high priesthood of Christ. One is the priesthood of the faithful, made up of ordinary people who participate in the priestly character of the Church through Baptism and their own vocations. The Church teaches that everyone shares in the priestly character of Christ, as they share in his life, suffering, and death.

The second priesthood is the ministerial, or hierarchical priesthood of bishops and priests. Christ develops and leads his Church through the ministerial priesthood. Through the sacrament of Holy Orders, members of the ministerial priesthood may act in place of Christ and in the name of the Church.

Bishops are each a link in the apostolic line, an unbroken succession going back to the earliest days of the Church. At the apex of the sacred ministry, they receive the full powers of the sacrament of Holy Orders: to sanctify, teach, and rule. Bishops are also the ones who become pontiffs and pastors.

The episcopal order is collegial. Bishops work together in the consecration of a new bishop, and each bishop is responsible for the apostolic mission of the whole Church.

Priests are consecrated to help bishops in the work of the Church. They preach the Gospel, take care of the faithful, and celebrate the holy liturgies. They carry out their ministries in communication with and in service to their bishops, whom they promise to love and obey. All priests are members of a priestly college, or presbyterium.

Deacons assume Holy Orders through a special imprint or seal that marks them as ministers, deacons, or servants. Deacons are generally attached to the bishop who ordained them. They assist him in celebrating the Eucharist, distributing Holy Communion, assisting at and blessing marriages, proclaiming the Gospel and preaching, conducting funerals, and working in charitable ministries.

The sacrament of Holy Orders is performed by the bishop, who lays hands on candidate and recites a specific consecratory prayer. In the Catholic Church there are accompanying rituals, such as the presentation, instruction, and examination of the candidate.

If initiates are to be ordained as bishops or priests, they are anointed with holy chrism, a sign of the special anointing of the Holy Spirit. New bishops also receive the books of the Gospels along with the ring, miter, and crosier as symbols of apostolic mission.

The priests receive the paten and chalice, through which they make offerings for the Church to God. The deacons receive the books of the Gospels, to proclaim the Gospel of Christ.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests, especially on behalf of Father [N].

Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life.

In his loneliness, comfort him.

In his sorrows, strengthen him.

In his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

(Cardinal Carberry, +1998)
