❖ The total ShareLife collection from January to the end of May was $11,250. Thank you for your generosity.

❖ The ShareLife Community Challenge! A generous parishioner in the Archdiocese has committed $650,000 toward matching all new and increased gifts to the 2012 ShareLife campaign.

❖ Re: Accepting Schools Act (Bill 13) - Statement from the Assembly of Catholic Bishops of Ontario, June 5, 2012. Today the Ontario Legislature has passed Bill 13. The Assembly of Catholic Bishops of Ontario has expressed serious concerns regarding certain aspects of this legislation, as have numerous other individual citizens and groups. Recognizing that the Accepting Schools Act is now the law, Catholic partners will seek, as we have always done, in a way that is in accord with our faith, to foster safe and welcoming school communities. Bullying, in any form, is unacceptable. At the core of our Catholic Christian beliefs is the command to welcome every person with love and respect. - Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto, President, Assembly of Catholic Bishops of Ontario.

❖ Directed privat retreat - During the week of July 22-29 come to rest, renew, pray, worship, and grow. The retreat house (Queen of Apostles Renewal Centre, Mississauga) is in silence and you are invited into this peaceful stillness for a couple of days or for the week. Further informations: 905-278-5229 or ksmith@qoa.ca.

❖ On behalf of Mrs. Kitty Quish, thank you to all the participants of the funeral Mass of +Patrick Quish last Monday. The family is handling the in lieu of Flowers donations. Our prayers and compassion are with Kitty and the family.

❖ Get Informed, Get Activated and Get Involved. You are invited to the 2012 Toronto Pro-Life Forum at the Hotel Novotel Toronto Centre, located at 45 The Esplanade, Toronto on Friday June 15th (Banquet) and Saturday June 16th (All Day forum), for a great opportunity to be informed and inspired by leading experts from Canada's Pro-life movement. Damian Goddard, former Sportsnet host, fired for his support of traditional marriage, is the keynote speaker at the banquet dinner on Friday night (doors open at 6pm) at 7:00pm on June 15th. The all-day forum on Saturday begins at 8am. To register please call 416-204-9749 / 1-800-730-535 or visit www.campaignlifecoalition.com for more information.

❖ Campaign Life Catholics wants to thank all the parishioners for doing Coins for Life in Lent, 2012. The response of the 40+ parishes is truly encouraging. It is wonderful to see the efforts of so many in our Archdiocese and proves how committed our pastors and catholic people are to the Pro Life and Family movement which Campaign Life Catholics has been promoting in unity with our Church for 30+ years. Pope Benedict XVI often speaks about the need for a culture of "Life" in a secular world where the culture of death is all around us. China alone has terminated about one billion childrens' lives. We are the only western country to have no protection for the unborn. Since 1988 Canada has had no law to protect the unborn and well over 4 million abortions have taken place. So thank you again for the wonderful efforts to help us to continue to run the National March for Life (20,000 participants in Ottawa), 40 Days for Life, Lifechain, to inform and activate Catholics to affect positive change in their neighbourhoods and across the nation. Your parish contributed $883.24! You can view the Certificate of Appreciation from CLC at the entrance of the Church. We would be delighted if a few volunteers would come forward to run Coins for Life 2013. ### 50th International Eucharistic Congress, Dublin June 10th-17th.

The Programme is built around the daily celebration of the Eucharist and each day has a theme of its own, related to the main Congress theme The Eucharist: Communion with Christ and with one another. - The Church is not simply an organisation or structure where one becomes a member by paying and keeping up a subscription, whether one actively takes part or not. The Congress Document notes how the theme of communion speaks to the heart of our identity and mission as Christians. This is vital at a moment in which traditional interpersonal relationships and social ties diminish. In God's plan the Church is to be a sign and instrument, in Jesus Christ, of uniting people with God and with one another as we read in the Constitution Lumen gentium. The document notes that 'In the Eucharist we discover the genetic code of communion that is at the heart of the Church's identity...' At the same time it recalls starkly (n. 17) that 'when our communion with the body of Christ is broken, this brokenness strikes at the heart of the Church's evangelising mission'. (Archbishop Diarmuid Martin, Rome, November 2010)

2012 also marks the fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration of the Second Vatican Council, which could be described as a Pentecostal event that remains a sure compass by which the Church today too takes its bearings. The theme for the Dublin Eucharistic Congress picks up on the notion of communion that was so central in the Council's vision. - The Congress presents us with a golden opportunity to explore further how far we have let the reform proposed by the Council in terms of communion impact upon us, both in relation to the fabric of the Church's own inner life of communion as well as in reference to our outreach to all who journey with us along the pathways of history. The notion of communion is, in fact, very significant for evangelisation, that is, for communicating the Good News of Jesus Christ who wants to be among us with his happiness and freedom, ardour and peace. The many sisters and brothers in the faith from Asia and Africa, from the Americas and Oceania, as well as from Europe, who will gather for the International Congress, will enrich our exploration of the Congress theme by expressing the unity and diversity of the Church's communion.

The 2012 Eucharistic Congress can be viewed as a 'kairos' moment in the biblical sense of an opportune time when something special can happen due to God's intervention. It is a moment when the Church both in Ireland and worldwide can benefit much from listening again to what the Holy Spirit has said and is saying to the Church, in and through the Second Vatican Council. It is indeed a providential occasion for people to come together in communion with Christ and with one another 'to reflect on the wounds inflicted on Christ's body, the sometimes painful remedies needed to bind and heal them, and the need for unity, charity and mutual support in the long-term process of restoration and ecclesial renewal.'<sup>4</sup> The Congress can also be considered as a kind of 'statio' moment, that is, a pause of commitment and prayer, a station along the Church's journey to which the Church in Ireland invites the universal Church. As such it is a specific moment in its pilgrim journey when the universal Church is invited to focus especially on one particular aspect of the Eucharist, that of communion with Christ and with one another, proposed in the Congress theme. In doing so we shall worship publicly in the bond of charity and unity. Gathering with pilgrims from every part of the world, the Congress is to be an authentic sign of faith and charity in communion offered to all.

25,000 participants each day for 7 days. 2,000 international pilgrims. 80,000 participants in the Statio Orbis (Croke Park). 2,000-3,000 volunteers. Over 100 exhibition stands. Over 150 workshops and discussion groups. 18 keynote addresses by International speakers. Masses, prayers & liturgical celebrations in 7 languages. Eucharistic Procession, Adoration and Benediction. Film, music, concerts, theatre, 100s of choirs. Dedicated space & events for over 2,500 young people.
