ANNOUNCEMENTS

❖ Each year the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops is asked to speak out, give leadership, or provide guidelines for the faithful on a wide variety of topics. In order for our Bishops to be able to make proper judgments on modern topics, they must have the benefit of research and expert advice. Research and gathering information require staff, time, and money. Finding ways to provide channels to the Bishops from the people of God and ways of disseminating the thinking of the Bishops to the people of God also requires resources. Through the yearly Bishops' collection for the needs of the Church in Canada, an appeal is made to all Catholics to be generous in supporting the work of their Bishops. In addition to contributions, we are also asked to pray for the work of the Bishops and to participate in and cooperate with the various projects of the CCCB.

SAINT MICHAEL ARCHANGEL

In Hebrew, Michael means "who is like God?". Michael is mentioned three times in the Book of Daniel, once as a "great prince who stands up for the children of your people". In the New Testament Michael leads God's armies against Satan's forces in the Book of Revelation, where during the war in heaven he defeats Satan. In the Epistle of Jude Michael is specifically referred to as an "archangel". Christian sanctuaries to Michael appeared in the 4th century, when he was first seen as a healing angel, and then over time as a protector and the leader of the army of God against the forces of evil. By the 6th century, devotions to Archangel Michael were widespread both in the Eastern and Western Churches.

Thoughts of St. Ignatius of Loyola

* The fall of one man is a terror to others, and casts a damper on the fervor of many in the way of virtue.

* If discretion seem to you a rare thing and hard to obtain, supply the lack of it by obedience: have recourse to that, and you will be safe.

* When an untamed and intractable horse is piled up with many burdens beyond his strength, spurs are applied to him, not the bridle.

* You do a great deal by the mere intention of undertaking labor for souls.

* A good life is much better than learning, whether for obtaining or for communicating to others the gifts of the Holy Ghost.

* The concern of serving our neighbor, which extends far and wide on all sides, is gathered up together in holy desires and prayers.
