Thoughts of St. Ignatius of Loyola

- * Life would be unbearable to me if I found lurking in my soul anything human and not wholly divine.
- * If it were possible for one who loved God to be damned without fault of his own, he could easily bear all the pains of hell save the blasphemies of the damned against God.
- * Much more danger lurks in making light of little sins than of great ones.
- * Nothing resists the truth for long: it may be assailed, but never overcome.
