ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Catholic Missions in Canada www.cmic.info / Scarboro Missions www.scarboromissions.ca Commonly known as "the shared collection". Funds are split equally between these two mission groups for the promotion of gospel values. Catholic Missions In Canada, founded in 1908, fosters and extends the blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting missions in regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile for the people themselves to support their local Church and its ministry. Scarboro Missions, formerly the Scarboro Foreign Mission Society, founded in 1918, is involved in mission work overseas. Today, Scarboro priests and lay missionaries work side by side and in cooperation with other mission groups all over the world as they seek to serve in creative and new endeavours where the Gospel has not been heard, to encounter and celebrate God's presence in the life, history, culture and faiths of those they meet, to live simply and in solidarity with the poor and marginalized people of the world.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola: Suscipe

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding and my entire will,
All I have and call my own.

You have given all to me. To you, Lord, I return it.

Everything is yours; do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace. That is enough for me.

Thoughts of St. Ignatius of Loyola

- * To prevent us doing a good deed, the devil often suggests to us a better: then he raises fresh difficulties and obstacles to prevent our doing that.
- * A superior ought to treat his subjects in such a way that they may be cheerful, free from sadness, and serve God with a serene mind.
- * When taking the first steps on the road of virtue the old man must be mortified, but in such a way as not to slay the new man.
- * In particular, do not embark on affairs of public interest, which will be open to the observation and criticism of the many, unless you foresee a way of bringing them to a successful conclusion.
- * When, as is but human, errors are committed by others, you should see in them, as in a mirror, some deformity that needs removing in yourself.
- * If you begin by winning your own approval, you will easily command that of others.
- * Do everything you do without expecting praise: but let everything you do be such as cannot justly be blamed.
