ANNOUNCEMENTS

❖ As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of November 15/16. This fund does more than just support our priest's in their twilight years; it represents a very tangible gesture of thanks for the blessings we have received. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

❖ The Helicon Society invites you to the commemorative 25th anniversary of the Pan-European Picnic, '89 program: "Return to the Free World!", to be held on Sunday, Nov. 16th, 3 p.m. at TO Botanical Garden (corner of Lawrence Ave., E. and Leslie St.). ❖ Hungarian youth synod. The new Youth Coordinator, Hanna Tomory at St. Elizabeth Church, invites all associations (Scouts, Kodaly Dancing, Helicon, Magyar Schools, etc.) who run programs for Hungarian teenagers in Ontario to send 1-2 representatives to the church at 12 PM on November 30, in the Hungarian School, to discuss how to re-energize your events to keep more youth involved! Topics (among others): what prevents your group from growing? What prevents you from organizing more events for youth? How could we improve communication between groups? Should we launch a Canadian Hungarian non-profit umbrella organization to serve the youth better? There will be 3 key meetings: Nov 30th, January, and March. Please RSVP your organization's attendance by emailing the contact info of your representative to: szte.ifjusag@gmail.com. We welcome ideas/questions from anyone about how to keep our teenagers rooted in Hungarian culture!

❖ Emma Varga will be accepting donations for Father Jaschko's Missionary Christmas Card Club on Sun, Nov. 30th and Sun. Dec, 7th, from 10 AM to 12 Noon in the room opposite the Office.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

Elizabeth is perhaps best known for her miracle of the roses which says that whilst she was taking bread to the poor in secret, she met her husband Ludwig on a hunting party, who, in order to quell suspicions of the gentry that she was stealing treasure from the castle, asked her to reveal what was hidden under her cloak. In that moment, her cloak fell open and a vision of white and red roses could be seen, which proved to Ludwig that God's protecting hand was at work. Her husband, according to the vitae, was never troubled by her charity and always supported it. Hers is the first of many miracles that associate Christian saints with roses, and is the most frequently depicted in the saint's iconography.

Another popular story about St. Elizabeth relates how she laid the leper Helias of Eisenach in the bed she shared with her husband. Her mother-in-law, who was horrified, told this immediately to Ludwig on his return. When Ludwig removed the bedclothes in great indignation, at that instant "Almighty God opened the eyes of his soul, and instead of a leper he saw the figure of Christ crucified stretched upon the bed."

Very soon after the death of Elizabeth, miracles were reported that happened at her grave in the church of the hospital, especially those of healing. On the suggestion of Konrad, and by papal command, examinations were held of those who had been healed. The results of those examinations was supplemented by a brief vita of the saint-to-be, and together with the testimony of Elizabeth's handmaidens and companions proved sufficient reason for the quick canonization of Elizabeth on 27 May 1235 in Perugia. She was canonized by Pope Gregory IX. (Wikipedia)
