Thoughts of St. Ignatius of Loyola

- * If the guide God chooses for you to follow were only a little dog, you should not complain, but at God's command follow it willingly and gladly.
- * Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.
- * It is far better to procure a mere morsel of some one good thing safely than to gain a hundred at the risk of your salvation.
- * Give me only thy love and thy grace, O Lord, and I am rich enough; I ask for nothing more.
- * No created thing can give rise to any gladness in the soul that is worthy of comparison with the joy of the Holy Ghost.
