❖ Mission co-operative collection on Sunday August 16. Summary of the 2015 Missionary Co-operative Program: The Archdiocese of Pondicherry and Cuddalore is located in the south-east coast of India, one hundred miles down the coast from the metropolitan city of Madras. It has a Catholic population of 380,000 spread in 11,350 sq. kms in two districts of Pondicherry State and in two districts of Tamil Nadu State. The Needs of the Archdiocese:

Fostering Vocations and Education of Seminarians:

We are happy that God has blessed our Archdiocese with a great number of vocations. At the same time due to financial constraints, we are not able to pay for their maintenance. Their training and education to be future priests needs your financial support.

Maintenance of the Priests: Our Archdiocese has been blessed with the presence of 207 Diocesan priests. We need prayers and financial support for the maintenance of the priests, providing them medical assistance, providing resources and opportunities for the on-going education and formation and providing a decent living quarters and support for our retired clergy.

The Education of the Poor Children: Our Archbishop's preferential option for the liberation and development of the poor and the marginalized can be very well sensed by his Education Mission to the faithful of the Archdiocese. The Education of The Poor Children needs financial support.

Social and Economic Development: The Archdiocese has also been working for the social and economic development of the poor and the needy.

The Archdiocese runs homes for the sick, the poor and the aged and has self-help groups, income generation programs, community house-construction, vocational training for basic life-skills – all necessary means for the development of the poor and the needy.

❖ The Role of the Whole Parish in Preparing Children and Adults to Celebrate Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist on September 18-19 in Manresa Jesuit Spiritual Renewal Centre, 2325 Liverpool Rd., Pickering. The task of preparing children and adults to celebrate initiation is one of the joys and responsibilities of all the baptized. Each parish, regardless of its size or the number of candidates preparing to celebrate a sacrament of initiation, is able to assist the baptized community in fulfilling their primary role. The conference will name challenges and explore pastoral approaches to deepening the role of the Sunday assembly in the initiation of new members. A brochure and registration form is available online at <http://olcinitiation.blogspot.ca/> or by email: olcncia@gmail.com.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Inigo Lopez de Loyola, who later took the name Ignatius, was the youngest son of a nobleman of the mountainous Basque region of northern Spain. Trained in the courtly manner of the time of King Ferdinand, he dreamed of the glories of knighthood and wore his sword and breastplate with a proud arrogance. When Ignatius was born in 1491, the Middle Ages were just ending and Europe was entering into the Renaissance. So Ignatius was a man on the edge of two worlds.

Europe of the late 15th Century was a world of discovery and invention. European explorers sailed west to the Americas and south to Africa, and scholars uncovered the buried civilizations of Greece and Rome. The printing press fed a new hunger for knowledge among a growing middle class. It was the end of chivalry and the rise of a new humanism. It was a time of radical change, social upheaval, and war.

In an attempt in 1521 to defend the Spanish border fortress of Pamplona against the French artillery, Inigo's right leg was shattered by a cannon ball. His French captors, impressed by the Inigo's courage, carried him on a litter across Spain to his family home at Loyola where he began a long period of convalescence.

During that time, he read several religious books, the only reading material readily available. These books and the isolation of the recovery period brought about a conversion which led to the founding of the Jesuits. Ignatius began to pray. He fasted, did penance and works of charity, dedicated himself to God and, after some troubles with the Spanish Inquisition, decided to study for the priesthood.

As a student in Paris he drew a small band of friends to himself and directed them in extended prayer and meditation according to his Spiritual Exercises. After further studies, the first Jesuits were ordained to the Catholic priesthood in Venice and offered themselves in service to Pope Paul III. In 1540, Paul III approved the Institute of the Society of Jesus. St Ignatius was elected General Superior and served in that post until his death in 1556 at the age of 65.
