At 17, Brittany came to the Rose of Sharon to enroll in the mother baby programs designed to assist her and her new family get on their feet. Everything from diapers, food, clothing, cooking classes, completion of high school education, Ontario Works application, resume assistance and more was available to her. Within a year, she was able to use her new-found skills to adjust to her new life. Pope Francis: we have a mission to live in communion with God and with each other.

Pope Francis says that Holy Trinity Sunday exhorts us to live one with the other, to welcome the beauty of the Gospel message and to learn to ask forgiveness.

Marking the liturgical feast of Holy Trinity Sunday, the Pope reminded those present that it is celebrated in honor of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs, the mystery of the three Persons of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, — who are all equally God, and cannot be divided. This solemnity renews in us our own mission to live in communion with God and with each other.

We are not called to live without the other, above or against the other, but with the other, for the other and in the other. This means welcoming and bearing witness to the beauty of the Gospel; loving each other, sharing joy and suffering, learning how to forgive. And referring specifically to ecclesial communities, he said they are called to be ever more family, capable of reflecting the splendor of the Trinity and of evangelizing, not with words alone, but with the strength of God's love that lives within us.

The Holy Spirit guides us towards full knowledge of Christ's teachings. Jesus came to the world to acquaint us with the Father. Everything in Christian life revolves around the mystery of the Trinity. So let's pitch our lives high, remembering for which glory we exist, we work, we fight, we suffer; and in which immense prize we are called to participate in. And the Pope invited all those present to make the sign of the cross together saying out loud: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit". Concluding, Pope Francis prayed to Our Lady to help the Church to always be a hospitable community where every person, especially the poor and the marginalized, may find a warm welcome (Vatican Radio, 31/05/2015).
