ANNOUNCEMENTS

- ❖ Fr. Kiss Ulrich from Hungary is going to serve in our church from August 3 until September 5.
- ❖ Hike and Prayer in the Beaches on Saturday, August 6, 10:30 AM starting at Athens Pastries, 1681 Lake Shore Blvd E, Toronto (meeting outside). Young adults (18-39) are invited to join us for an opportunity to slow down with God and enjoy the beauty of nature. We will end with a picnic on the beach. Children welcome! Be sure to bring your picnic (consider items to share), sturdy shoes, water, and optionally beach wear for the lake or free Donald D. Summerville Olympic Pool/frisbee/ball/etc. RSVPs appreciated, call Vanessa Nicholas-Schmidt 416-467-2645 - a ministry of Fontbonne Ministries, Sisters of St. Joseph, Toronto.
- ❖ Let's Sing Chant! On August 11-14, 10 AM, at Saint Augustine's Seminary, 2661 Kingston Rd. The Gregorian Institute of Canada presents Colloquium 2016, an intensive series of workshops, lectures and liturgical services in the practice and study of Gregorian chant. Guest clinician: Adam Bartlett (author of Simple English Propers). For further information, full program details, registration and accommodation, please visit www.gregorian.ca.
- ❖ There will be the shared collection on August 14. Funds are split equally between these two mission groups for the promotion of gospel values. Catholic Missions In Canada, founded in 1908, fosters and extends the blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting missions in regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile for the people themselves to support their local Church and its ministry. Scarboro Missions, formerly the Scarboro Foreign Mission Society, founded in 1918, is involved in mission work overseas. Today, Scarboro priests and lay missionaries work side by side and in cooperation with other mission groups all over the world as they seek to serve in creative and new endeavours where the Gospel has not been heard, to encounter and celebrate God's presence in the life, history, culture and faiths of those they meet, to live simply and in solidarity with the poor and marginalized people of the world.
- ❖ Living Mercy: A Pilgrimage Retreat for Young Adults on Friday, August 26, 4:30 to Sunday, August 28, 1:30 at the Hamilton home of the Sisters of St. Joseph. In this Year of Mercy, Faith Connections and the Federation of the Sisters of St. Joseph invite you to join other young adults (men and women, 18-39) as we explore how to live the call to mercy in prayer, practice, passion, and promise. Cost: $150, including meals/accommodation, $65 if you do not require accommodation. If cost is a concern please contact us. Carpooling available. To register, call Vanessa Nicholas-Schmidt at 416-467-2645.

❖ On Saturday, September 10, at 6 PM, the Archdiocese of Toronto is participating in a special dinner to support Christians in the Middle East, particularly those in Egypt, Syria and Iraq. The event will take place at the Madison Convention Centre in Woodbridge. Our keynote speaker is Fr. Henri Boulad, SJ, the renowned Melkite priest who serves as Director of the Jesuit-run Cultural Centre in Alexandria, Egypt. As a bold activist and inspiring speaker, Fr. Boulad provides an eloquent witness on behalf of religious minorities and an engaging approach to evangelization. Cardinal Collins will be in attendance, along with representatives of Eastern rite communities. Proceeds will go towards projects respectively supported by Fr. Boulad in Egypt and by the Catholic Near East Welfare Association in Syria and Iraq. For more details and to purchase tickets, visit boulad.eventbrite.ca.

Ignatius Spirituality

Following the example of St. Ignatius, Ignatian spirituality centers on the imitation of Jesus—focusing on those priorities which constitute Christ's mind, heart, values, priorities and loves. To learn what those values, priorities and loves are, Ignatius would encourage us to consider what Jesus said and did. At the foundation of Jesus's life was prayer, a continuous search for how best to live as an authentic human being before a loving God. Jesus preached forgiveness of sins, healed the sick and possessed, and gave hope to the poor, to those socially and economically outcast. Jesus spoke of joy, peace, justice and love; he summoned men and women from all classes of society to continue to follow his way to God and his commitment to helping people become whole and holy.

Ignatian spirituality attempts to incorporate these same gospel values into all its works. It stresses the need to take time to reflect and to pray, in order to find out how God wants us to serve in all our ministries. This active commitment to seeking God's leadership is called discernment.

Ignatian spirituality is incarnational; it views the world as a place where Christ walked, talked and embraced people. It views the world, therefore, as a place of grace, a place of being able to give life to others. We are called to find and to pursue how God wants other men and women to be forgiven, to be free, to utilize all their talents and opportunities in ways which build up this world as a place where faith, justice, peace, and love can flourish.

At the same time, Ignatian spirituality is realistic. The world Christ faced was also a world of cruelty, injustice and the abuse of power and authority. Consequently, Ignatian spirituality affirms our human potential but also is dedicated to the ongoing, day-in-day-out struggle between good and evil. The Jesuit norm is: to find where God will best be served and where people will best be helped.
