ANNOUNCEMENTS

❖ The Hungarian National Dance Ensemble (Magyar Nemzeti Táncgyűttes): Spirit of Hungary -

Revolution and Roots in Dance and Music. Established in 1949, this legendary company has been touring the world to great acclaim. This North American tour is aimed at commemorating the 60th anniversary of the 1956 Hungarian uprising against Soviet rule, while also presenting authentic Hungarian folklore in a dazzling performance. On Sunday, October 16, 6 PM, at the George Weston Recital Hall, Toronto Center for the Arts, 5040 Yonge Street. Tickets: 416-966-5156.

❖ Prophecy, Prophets, and Preachers: The Rise of the Modern Messianic Jewish Movement on Tuesday, October 18, 7-9 PM at Blessed Trinity Parish Hall, 3220 Bayview Ave. Ben Volman, founding leader of Congregation Eytz Chaim ("Tree of Life"), freelance journalist, and author of More than Miracles: the Story of the Scott Mission, will discuss the history of Jewish believers in Yeshua who comprise this modern movement, which is rooted in Sacred Scripture and which bridges the gap between the Messiah and the People of Israel. We will learn the unique place that Toronto has played in this story and how the movement is poised to go forward in the 21st century.

❖ Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday. Every parish across the world will celebrate World Mission Sunday next week. It is a global sign of the Universal Church and Mission. Your prayers and donations will help support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is beginning, where it is new. Please be as generous as possible to the collection for the Propagation of the Faith, for more than 1,120 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Pacific Islands and some of our Canadian dioceses depend on the World Mission collection.

❖ The concert of Csik Folk Band on October 28, 6 PM, at SMCS Centre for the Arts, 1515 Bathurst Street, Toronto. Tickets ($40): 416-749-0644 (Pintyó Erika).

❖ Books and immigrants' historical documents can be donated to Hungary – The Mikes Kelemen Program continues again. Donations offered by communities or individuals may be delivered to our church between October 15 and January 15. We appreciate library-related and archive-related materials: books, newspapers, flyers, posters, brochures, invites, manuscripts, correspondence, photographs as well as audio and visual recordings, or other material heritage referring to Hungarians or Hungary in any languages. The Mikes Kelemen Program solely focuses on preserving the material heritage of the Hungarian diaspora. A part of the collected materials will be added to the stock of the National Széchényi Library and the National Archives of Hungary, while the rest of it will be distributed to libraries and schools in the Carpathian Basin. Please contact: Zsuzsanna Volekne Temesi (Librarian, MKP Scholar) (email: mkp.2016.toronto@gmail.com, tel.: 647-649-1692).

Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

Saint Margaret Mary was born in Burgundy, France, in 1647. As a young girl, she was stricken with rheumatic fever, and the resulting paralysis forced her to be bedridden for the next four years until the age of fifteen. It was during this time that she developed an intense devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and made a vow to the Blessed Virgin to consecrate herself to religious life. During these hard times Margaret continued her devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and Christ made His presence known to her. She later wrote, "At that time, all my desire was to seek happiness and comfort in the Blessed Sacrament."

In 1671 Margaret entered the Order of the Visitation convent at Paray-le-Monial. During her retreat before her profession, she had a vision of Jesus in which He said, "Behold the wound in my side, wherein you are to make your abode, now and forever." The Lord continued to appear to her in visions and on December 27, 1673, the feast of Saint John the Evangelist, as she knelt at the grill before the exposed Blessed Sacrament, she experienced a vision in which the Lord told her to take the place that Saint John had occupied at the Last Supper, and that she would act as His instrument. Jesus revealed His Sacred Heart as a symbol of His love for mankind, saying, "My divine Heart is so inflamed with love for mankind ... that it can no longer contain within itself the flames of its burning charity and must spread them abroad by your means." She described that His Heart was on fire and surrounded by a crown of thorns. Our Lord told her that the flames represented His love for humanity, and the thorns represented man's sinfulness and ingratitude. Jesus informed her that her mission was to establish the devotion to His Most Sacred Heart, and He revealed twelve promises that He would bestow upon all those who practice the devotion. She had three more visions over the next year and a half in which Jesus instructed her in a devotion that was to become known as the Nine Fridays. Christ also inspired Margaret Mary to establish the Holy Hour and to receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of every month.

Blessed Claude de la Colombiere, a holy and experienced Jesuit, arrived as confessor to the nuns, and in him Margaret Mary recognized the understanding guide that had been promised to her in the visions. He became convinced that her experiences were genuine and adopted the teaching of the Sacred Heart that her visions had communicated.

The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus was officially recognized and approved by Pope Clement XIII in 1765. She was declared Venerable in March, 1824 by Pope Leo XII, and she was pronounced Blessed on September 18, 1864 by Pope Pius IX. The inauguration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus occurred in 1856, and Margaret Mary was canonized by Benedict XV in 1920 (sacredheartapostolate.com).
