

Ian Sadler

Concert Organist

Ian holds degrees in musicology and education, with organ diplomas from Trinity College of Music and The Royal College of Organists in London and a recent Honorary Fellowship from The Royal Canadian College of Organists. As an organist, Ian has represented Canada internationally on many occasions. As a Canadian recitalist, tours have since taken him to Denmark, Sweden, Germany, France, Austria, the USA, the UK and Australia.

Annually he plays for many Canadian choirs in works such as Messiah, Haydn's Creation, Elijah, Bach's Christmas Oratorio, Requiems by Mozart, Brahms, and Verdi and Glorias by Vivaldi and Poulenc. Since moving to Canada, Ian has been nominated for The Premier's Award for Excellence in the Arts (2007), and The Order of Ontario (2003). For his dedication to promoting the organ and Canadian music, both at home and abroad, The Royal Canadian College of Organists honoured Ian in 2007 with their highest award, 'Fellow of The Royal Canadian College of Organists'.
